

The Zionists are very close to their goal of a Jewish Theocracy to replace its apartheid state. A Jewish Theocracy like the Muslim Theocracy in Iran.

IN THE NEWS: Netanyahu won't commit to abiding by ruling if Supreme Court blocks controversial law... Benny Gantz, the leader of Israel's opposition National Unity party warned that if Netanyahu ignored an adverse ruling from the country's top court, it would amount to a coup. "In a democratic country, a prime minister respects and acts according to court rulings, no matter how much he disagrees with them," Gantz said on Twitter. "There is no room for interpretation and gray areas – clear and smooth." "If Netanyahu, like any elected official, does not follow the court's ruling, he will carry out a regime coup d'état that will change the nature of the regime in Israel, something that will negate his legitimacy to hold office."

US pans settler violence, noting it has led Palestinians to flee their villages
State Department says administration 'deeply troubled' after footage emerges of armed settlers storming into Palestinian homes in West Bank accompanied by soldiers.

The Jordanian Foreign Ministry in a statement said that Ben-Gvir's visit "represents a provocative and blatant breach of international law and the historical and legal status of Jerusalem and its sacred sites." The Palestinian Authority called the visit to the site an effort at "imposing forcible changes on its historical and legal reality, as an integral part of the process of Judaizing Jerusalem."

FRIENDS: The Zionist seem to claim that all of Palestine is theirs and they can do whatever they want to the Palestinians living there because a long time ago God gave it to them. Well I would remind them that God in 72 CE told the Romans to tear down Solomon's Temple and disburse the Jews out of the City of David in Jerusalem because they crucified Jesus.

Then in 600 CE God gave the Temple Mount to Muhammed the heir of Ismael the first born of Abraham. Then God allowed the Nazis to kill 6 million Jews I guess because God was still mad about the crucifying of Jesus the Messiah.

Then President Harry Truman of the USA gave the Zionist a little patch of ground in Palestine they could call Israel. Then over the years the Zionist expanded on that land against international law. And no one did anything about it. And over the years they became an apartheid state. Now they want to be a Theocracy just like Iran. And now each day they become more lawless and enforce their anti-semitism on the semitic Muslims known as the Palestinians. And still no one does anything about it.

The Declaration of Human Rights of the United Nations says every human being is entitled to a citizenship of some nation but the United Nations seem to except the Palestinians of this right.

This is what I say as the Advocate of Jesus Christ Jn 14:25 and as the only global advocate for WorldPeace: That at the time of the next American election of President God will again show His intentions with regards to the Zionists for their actions against their semitic brothers the Palestinian Muslims. The same way he gave the Romans charge of the Jews in 72 CE and again in the 1930s to the Nazis. If the Zionist were the chosen people of God, then God would not have given the Romans and the Nazis power over them. Who will deny it?
